

The diagram consists of a horizontal line with two vertical tick marks extending downwards from it. A solid black vertical bar is positioned to the left of the horizontal line, extending from the top of the tick marks down to the bottom of the page.